MORE SLAVERY:

There is a new idea that has taken possession of the Republican mind about the way the United States should hold the outlying territories we have lately acquired, which is in line with the general conception of the money power. There is no improvement except in the manner of cruelty applied. It is slave from its beginning to its closing, as it could not be otherwise when coming from that source. It is now concluded to be a proper way to dispose of the question respecting the future of the islands to hold them as property, which will give them the relation that the beast of the field sustain to values in market.

The idea is worthy of its source, which is the source of some very beastly ideas. Where else in all Christendom could such a thought have originated except in the brains of a brutalized money oligarchy? Hold the islands as property!

When the theory is applied, who will own the people there are upon the territory, and what relation will they sustain to the owner of the islands? Will one class of laws apply to the soil, making it property, and another class of laws apply to the people, making them free?

No such application is included in the theory, as it is not included in the idea of ownership. A holding in a property sense of the islands will include and is intended to include a holding of the people in the same sense, which sense was included when the islands were purchased from Spain.

When the United States bought the islands from Spain for twenty millions of dollars the purchase and transfer applied not only to the islands but also to the people who occupied them. It is because of purchase and transfer that we claim authority over them including the right to kill them off provided they do not obey their new master. Property in man when held by man has been condemned by enlightened man and largely removed, but the principle remains in force when nations are the dealers in human beings. The pulpit and the forum defend the principle when applied by nations and it will in the future be defended in both places if the money power insist upon applying the principle.

The world's movement upon the face of political affairs is backward as the idea advanced if applied will be the application of a principle either through ignorance or maliciousness (the latter most likely) that has been exploded by less enlightened men than there are now, three hundred years ago. What next in the sum of cruelties will the money power seek to apply to enslave the earth to its uses and purposes?

AS THEY APPEARED TO OTHERS.

The Democratic State Central Committee made its appearance in Reno yesterday. A goodly number of members were present to give aid and comfort to each other and the cause of the people. We are of the opinion from the expression borne upon honest and earnest faces that a large majority of the members were fully aware of the weight of responsibility there was upon them.

The editor of the Elko Independent, who is among the best looking of the members bore himself in a way that gave his friends to understand that he was more than pleased over the future prospects of Bryan and the national Democracy. His confidence in the future of free silver could be learned from the lining of his eyes whose brightness confirmed his opinion that the work of the gold power in Congress would be subject to a review in the near future under the direction of a Democratic President.

Major Dennis, the most uncompromising Democrat in principle in the United States, aided the work of the committee with kind and wise suggestions upon its course. A large majority of those present are strong men in whose integrity the people may repose confidence respecting the future of their political and individual rights receiving the protection and care they demand. There may be a few of the Charley Wallace variety among the committee men.

Strange it would be in Nevada if there were not some of the kind who are spotted or off color upon a State central committee, but they were not in number sufficient to do any harm among the men who compose the body of the committee. There was upon attendance the sub-committee appointed by the State Central Committee of the Silver part, to confer with the Democratic State Central Committee respecting a fusion of the parties in the work of the campaign.

The sub-committee came not in vain, as it is learned since the committee adjourned that fusion has been made by the appointment of six delegates to the Democratic national convention, three of whom are Democrats and three are Silver party men, which is as it should be, as political parties are in Nevada. When the men of Nevada will do as they should for the best interests of the State, there will be a change for the better in business and values that will astonish our people. Then we will have money every day, and will have no extra use for it upon election days, as there is not a State in the Union that can provide more money from its products than the "rotten borough" when relieved from the methods which have made its name infamous.

A Little Lull.

For a few weeks Reno has not been as lively a burg as is its wont. Everybody has gone to work and the streets are not thronged in the evenings as they were earlier in the season. The gambling fraternity up on the Bow complain of the times.

Well, just wait a month. The floating population will then commence to drift back from the mines, construction camps and sawmills with a couple of months wages, and the wheel of fortune will spin again. The farmers will have also completed their early spring rush of work and will send their wives to town oftener on shopping errands.

Stickney Set Free.

Bob Stickney, alias Snowden, the debonaire young piano player, who was forced to skip from Reno by the light of the moon, is again free to indulge in his predilections in the direction of polygamous practices.

It will be remembered that he was arrested on the charge of stealing jewels from one of his alleged wives and bestowing them upon Mrs. Stickney No. 2. His trial has just been concluded in Sacramento, where the jury discharged him on account of lack of evidence.

Accident on the Grade.

Yesterday morning a four-in-hand left Virginia with six people aboard, en route for Reno. At the first curve on the grade, known as Dead Man's point, the horses became unmanageable and ran away. The vehicle was overturned and the occupants thrown violently over the grade. The carriage was a wreck and the horses were badly cut up.

The passengers were scratched and bruised, but not seriously injured. They continued to this city in other conveyances.

The Place to Eat Easter Dinner.

In the windows of the Washoe lunch counter there was a display of edibles last night that caused passers-by to speedily make up their minds where they would dine to-day. Meats, Easter eggs and greens made up the display. They were arranged in artistic manner.

THE EXPOSITION IS FORMALLY OPENED

Special to the JOURNAL.

PARIS, April 14.—The great Exposition was formally opened today. The following is the table of exhibitors, which speaks eloquently of American enterprise:

France, 30,000; United States, 6,564; Belgium, 2,500; Germany, 2,000; Italy, 2,000; Russia, 1,500; Scandinavia, 1,400; Austria, 1,000; Great Britain, 600; British colonies, 600; The opening ceremonies were attended with great enthusiasm.

Struggle Between Russia and the Brown People.

Special to the JOURNAL.

VICTORIA, April 14.—Japanese advices received today say that the entire country is greatly excited over Russian aggressions in Corea, and the belief is general that an early struggle for supremacy is inevitable.

Bryan in New Mexico.

ALBUQUERQUE N. M., April 14.—Wm. J. Bryan spoke to great crowds today. He said that all delegates should be instructed so as to represent the will of the people who sent them.

Boers Make Another Capture.

BLOEMFONTEIN, April 14.—A patrol of royal Irish fusiliers, with whom was the Earl of Rosslyn has been sent to Kroonstadt.

BRIEF WIRED WORDS.

Two of the planks of Admiral Dewey's platform of principles are that the silver question is dead and that a middle course should be taken as regards the Philippines.

Two more American soldiers have been beheaded by the Tagals.

It has been discovered that Secretary Gage has made a misstatement of $50,000,000 in estimating the revenue of our war taxes. The Democrats are talking of preparing impeachment articles.

Bryan will not have perfectly clear sailing at Kansas City. The gold Democrats are preparing to give Dewey quite a following.

By an almost unanimous vote, the House of Representatives adopts a resolution for a Constitutional amendment providing for the election of members of the Upper house by the people.

Senator Clark will not resign but will make an effort to retain the seat he bought so dearly.

The Boer losses, including prisoners, are estimated to be 12,000 since the beginning of the war.

Plans are being laid to form a giant trust by the farmers of the world to decrease production and force the price of wheat a dollar a bushel.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself began to catch cold we begin to use the cough remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. MEARLE, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie, Bedford county, pa. For sale by Wm. Pinniger.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at the drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return.
He also bought bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. For sale by Wm. Pinniger

THE DELEGATION

Three From the Ranks of the Unterrified and Three
From the Allied Forces.

From this date onward there will be nothing but a faint after-stench to remind the voters of Nevada that they once had a taskmaster in the form of Coin Wallace. The political sky is no longer "Black" with his countenance.
Thursday the boss was downed after a desperate fight by the Silver party people. Yesterday a gentleman of unknown politics from Wadsworth broke into the Democratic State Central Committee with a proxy in his pocket and tried to spring a large nigger in a small woodpile, in order that the railroad would feel justified in continuing Mr. Wallace's $800 a month, but the orator from the east was laid on the carpet, sat on, ridiculed and had his head figuratively thumped with an imaginary cuspidor. Editor Booher rallied his five feet four to Mr. Pike's rescue but the "unholy alliance," as he dubbed it, was like four aces against jack high on a show down.

Fusion, wherein lies the only hope of victory against the common foe, was accomplished with the greatest of ease and Wallace kicked himself with his cloven foot.

The committee met, according to the call, in the rooms of the Reno Wheelmen. On account of the illness of Chas. Gulling, Clayton Belknap called the meeting to order as temporary chairman. Major Dennis, the wheelhorse of the Democratic party, sat at the secretary's desk. Roll was called and other little matters of detail were attended to, after which W. H. A. Pike arose and, for some mysterious reason, moved that the committee adjourn to the court house. Mr. Pike was politely obliged.

At 2 the committee reassembled in the district court room. Never was a more harmonious meeting held by a State committee in Nevada until the irrepressible Pike, for another mysterious reason, began to bait the secretary, who was proceeding with his duties in methodical manner, bringing matters before the convention that appertained to his position. Finally the Major proposed this test: "I am in favor of the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 and will support the Democratominces." Pike and Booher, for still other mysterious reasons, objected to the test. They thought that the David Bennett Hillism, "I am a Democrat," was sufficient. The Major scored his little point.

The committee appointed to confer with the committee selected by the Silver party to settle upon a time and place for holding the State convention reported that they favored Virginia City, September 6. The report was approved and the committee discharged.

It was decided that the representation at the convention would be on the basis of one delegate for every 60 votes cast for Bryan in '96 and one delegate for every additional fraction above 30.
The time for holding primaries was fixed for August 25th. It was also settled that where it is not deemed advisable to hold primaries the county central committee shall appoint delegates, and where there is no organization this shall be done by the local members of the State central committee.

Joseph R. Ryan suggested that three Silver party men be selected as delegates to the Democratic national convention, thus showing the natural allies of the party the honesty of the fusion suggestion.

This brought Mr. Pike to his feet again. In stentorian tones he denounced the "infamous plot."

Editor Booher went him one better by calling it an "unholy alliance."

Pike evidenced his own folly in standing against fusion by this hand-dipping sentence: "The delegates to the Democratic national convention will be the only people of the party to receive political honors in this Republican year." Pretty language for a man to use, who is fighting for his boss and playing into the hands of the enemies of silver.

Pike presented his resolution above referred to, and it was promptly defeated by a rising vote. Then it was moved that the committee appoint delegates to the national convention.
Charles Stoddard amended it by moving that three of these be Silver party men, and the amendment easily carried.

The following delegates and alternates were chosen:

Democratic—J. H. Dennis, E. L.
Bingham alternate; Clayton Belknap, J. R. Ryan alternate; P. O. Webber, A.
C. May alternate,
Silver Party—Governor Sadler, Richard Kirman alternate; Congressman

Compounded Felony.

The capture of Silvestra Bianchi, who robbed Demerette, the Reno macaroni manufacturer, of a trunk full of personal property and $30 in cash, continues to attract interest in San Jose, the scene of capture, as well as here.

Constable McNeilly received two dispatches the other day from J. A.
Kedward, chief of the San Jose police, notifying him of the arrest and stating that a writ of habeas corpus had been sued for. This writ was denied.

Mr. Demerette and an attorney went to San Jose. The case was compromised by the prisoner paying the macaroni manufacturer a valuable consideration. Then, what did the California officers do but arrest Dem-erette for compounding a felony? The next returns are awaited with interest.
